Exaction of Usurious Interest by Savings Banks.

RECEIVERSHIP THAT WAS WORTH HAVING.

The trial of an important suit involving a charge of exaction of usurious interest against a sav-hank came to trial yesterday before Judge emore, holding Special Term. The suit is brought ages which are a cloud on plaintiff's title to certain moregages which are a cloud on plaintiff's title to certain property belonging to him in Sixty-third street, on the ground of usurious interest. The complaint sets forth that the plaintiff, wishing to save his property, which was about to be sold under foreclosure, applied to the defendant for a loan of $70,000. That the bank officers, sithough refusing to loan him the required sum, said that if the mortgage could be paid and the premiums bought in legally by the bank for a greater rate than even per cent the loan might be effected, and that then, Everett Clapp, who had an interest in the property and was charged with carrying the loan, made an agreement with Francis T. Clark, under which the party who had bid on the property but not naid for it, gave a deed of his bid to Clark, who mortgaged it to Clapp, who was only an agent, so that the bank should not directly take a mortgage, but leave the mortgage legally transforred to them by Clapp, to whom Sandford executed a quit deed of his, Clapp agreeing to pay more than the legal interest to the amount of $9,200. The plaintiff complains of usury to that amount. The mortgage was for one year and was dated May 9, and plaintiff asked to have it cancelled. Mr. Whoeler H. Peckham, who appeared for the bank, moved to dismiss the complaint, as it omitted to allege that Clark was the plaintiff's agent in making the mortgage and did not show a cause of action.

IMPORTANT ADMIRALTY CASES.

Yesterday Judge Benedict, of the United States Dis-ict Court, rendered his decision in the suits of William at et al. vs. The Steamship Benefactor; Will-I Mount et al. vs. The Steamship Benefactor; Willim Hirst et al. vs. The Same, which were actions rought to recover $145,113 of the steamship Benefacor for the loss of the schooner Susan Wright
a collision which occurred on February 6, 1875. The place of the collision was off quan Beach about ten o'clock in the morning, the Squan Beach about ten o'clock in the morning, the weather being fine and clear at the time. The steamer, which was bound outward, was running at the rate of can knots an hour, while the schooner was going at the rate of eight knots an hour, bound to New York. There was nothing, the Judge holds in his decision, to precent their passing each other in safety. They came together without slacking their speed, and the schooner and almost immediately, with her valuable cargo. After briefly reviewing the evidence Judge Benedict lays:—"The fault causing the collision was the fault of the steamer in attempting to pass ahead of the chooner and so close to her. There was no necessity or thus shaving the schooner, and it was highly improper so to do. The steamer, having chosen such a langerous course, it matters not whether she misuaged her ability by forty feet and so ran into the chooner, or whether the schooner, by reason of a similar migludgment, was led to suppose that the teamer could not clear her, and at the last moment united. A steamer has no right, under gircumstances ike these, needlessly to place herself in such close roximity to a saling vessel that the error of a moment will bring destruction. There must be a decree for the libeliant, with an order of reference to secretain the amount of loss."

THE STARKWEATHER SUIT.

After the Ring robberies were brought to light it is claimed that the city had been defrauded of a large in of money by the late Henry Starkweather, father-law of ex-Governor Hoffman, and who for a long ing been brought to trial up to the decease of Mr. Stark-weather, the action was revived against Mrs. Lucinda R. Starkweather, his wife and administratirs. After a good deal of delay in the courts, with the issual interposition of motions and counter-motions, the case inally came to trial yesterday, before Judge Sanford, of the Superior Court. The case is being tried by the Jodge, without a jury, and will probably occupy two or three days. Ex-Attorney General Barlow appears for the Attorney General, who is the prosecutor, and Mr. Alanson P. Nash represented the defendants. It is unaecessary to recapitulate the allegations set forth in the complaint, as they have already been published in netail. The judgment demanded is $130,608 31. The detail. The judgment demanded is $130,608 31. The answer sets up that Mr. Starkweither exacted only the fees allowed by statute, being two-and-a-haif per cent on all assessments collected and two per cent on as-assiments unpaid and returned to the Bureau of Ar-

RECEIVERS' FEES.

It is evidently worth something to be a receiver. Theodore M. Davis was appointed receiver of the Ocean National Bank. Having wound up the duties of his receivership, his next step—a usual one in such cases—was to get paid for his work. The matter was referred was to get paid for his work. The matter was referred to Philo P. Ruggles, whose report was submitted to Judge Barrett, in Supreme Court, Chambers. The referee reported that his services were worth $58,520 63. The ground of allowing such heavy ices is that the appointment dates mack to Becember 12, 1871, that the receiver was successful in collecting $400,000 and doubtfal claims growing out of the robbery of the bank; that he secured one-hait of the Portage Lake debt, amounting to $1,500,000, which was considered comparatively worthless, and that no expense was incurred in employing extra counsel. Judge Barrett decided that he had no jurisdiction in the matter, but, while leaving the question of the settlement of the fees to the Comptreller of the Currency, gives it as his opinion that, upon the proofs submitted to the referee, no other report could have been made.

SINGULAR DIVORCE SUIT.

Maurice Levy some three years ago became a disciple of St. Crispin and worked for Davis Fenlight, an Elizabeth street cobbler in humble circumstances. The young apprentice, as the story goes, took a fancy to Elizabeth Fenlight, the daughter of his employer, she at the time being about fourteen years of age. The fair Elizabeth did not reciprocate the affections of the youthin Maurice and refused to marry him. Her mother, however, thought it a good match, and insisted upon her marrying him. On the way to the police magistrate to be married she undertook to run away, but was brought to terms by a threat to call a policeman and have her arrested if she should persist in any such foolishness. This brought her to terms, but at the marriage service size refused to take her husband's hand and declared she would never her with him, which declaration she carried into effect. Her father, as ber guardian, has brought suit for divorce. The case came to trial yesterday before Juago Donohue, holding supreme Court, Circuit.

VERDICT FOR INJURIES RECEIVED. In the suit of John Sullivan against John Annin, John Cowan and George Vassar, to recover $10,000 damages for injuries received by the falling of an awning on West street, New York, the jury found a verdict for the defendant, Annin, who is the owner of the house; and a verdict against Cowan, the tenant, and in the Supreme Court before Judge Gilbert.

A motion was made yesterday before Judge J. F. Daly, in the Court of Common Pleas, Special Term, for the discharge of Henry Selling under the Stillwater act. At the close of the argument Judge Daly took the papers. The appeal in the suit brought by Minnie Hauek, the cantairice, against the executors of Samuel M. Pike, for payment of two months salary, at the rate of $1,400 per month, was argued yesterday in the Supremo Court, deneral Term. The Court took the papers. Theodore Torkelson, one of the crew of the Swedish park Westeride, was arrested yesterday for descrition and taken before United States Commissioner Orborn, who held him to await the action of the Swedish Consult. Torkelson says he descrited in order to join an American vessel and to learn the English language.

Application was made resterday to Judge Lawrence, in Supreme Court, Chambers, for the discharge of Henry C. Cole, some time age arrested in Philadelphia and brought to this city for trial, on a charge of lorging railroad bonds. Succeeding his acquittal in the Court of General Sessions he was arrested under civil process, which arrest, it is claimed, was illegal. The argument of the case was adjourned until to-day.

Abraham S. Jones sold to Clement M. Rutter five forged bonds of the Buffalo, New York and Eric Railway, not knowing, however, that they were forged. Rutter had Jones arrested, in a suit brought to recover the value of the bonds, which resulted in a vacation of the order of arrest. Jones thereupon brought a suit against Rutter, claiming $20,600 damages for malicious prosecution. The case was tried yosterday, before Judge Curus, of the Superior Court, when the complaint was dismissed, upon the ground that there was no evidence to go to the jury of malice or of want of probable cause. Messra. Goodrich & Wheeler appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. W. W. Niles for the defendant.

DECISIONS.

SUPREME COURT-CHAMBERS.

By Judge Lawrence.

Cooke vs. Wandell.—As the bill of particulars which has been demanded by the defendant has not beer served. I think that this motion is prematurely brought; it is therefore denied, without costs, and will leave to renew after the service of the bill of particulars.

Borst vs. Winckel.—Motion to place cause on the special calendar is granted and cause set down for 12th linst.

Mills vs. Rodewald.—The General Term having refused to dismiss the appeal in this case, I think that it would be competent for me to releve the appellant, even if the forty-fourth rule has not been compiled with. As the exceptions were filed before the plantiff named under the forty-fourth rule, I think that upon payment of $10 costs the appellant is entitled to an order that this be deemed to have been filed in time. Hard vs. Pester, Visemanday vs. Smal.—Motioss granted.

Owen vs. Groesbuck; The Daie Manufacturing Company vs. Watson; Archer vs. Lanson,—Granted.

Arthur vs. Higgins.—Order granted for allowance. George vs. Falk; Leveridge vs. Waterbury; Cook vs. Wandell.—Orders granted.

Robeson vs. The James St. John Stationery Company.—Motion is denied without costs.

Koehler vs. Wholin.—The default is opened on payment of $10 costs and upon service of answer in five days from date; judgment to stand as security.

Heermance vs. Taylor.—Case and amendments as settled.

Crankshaw vs. Laugley.—I cannet accept this affidavit.

O'Brien vs. Browning.—In this case I deny the mo-

Crankshaw vs. Laugicy.—I cannot accept this amdavit.

O'Brien vs. Browning.—In this case I deny the motion for the reason that it is for the interest of all the parties that there should be a receiver, and the jury having passed upon the issues adversely to the defendants it does not seem to me to be proper that any stay amould be granted to prevent the officer of the court from taking possession. Motion denied without costs.

Dickerhoff et al. vs. Taylor and another. -Order

Dickorhoff et al. va. Taylor and another.—Order granted dissolving attachment.

Nites va. Shaw.—The preliminary objection, that no demand of the account was made before service of the order to show cause, must be sustained (Code, sec. 188). But, as I understand counsel, that upon payment of costs of motion he would be willing to lurinish such account, I shall direct that upon payment of $10 costs to them the plaintiff have ten days thereafter, issue to be of original date, and short notice to be accepted.

Northrop vs. Hewitt.—The case of Glemsley vs. Stedwell, cited by the plaintiff's counsel, seems to be conclusive upon this motion. The learned Justice to whom the application for examination was addressed, in the exercise of his discretion, granted the order, with that discretion. I cannot interfere, nor can I assume to determine whether it was wisely or unwisely exercised (See Glemy vs. Stuart, Court of Appeals in New York Weekly Digest, March 13, 1876).

By Judge Barrett.

Lorillard vs. Clyde.—Motion for a mandamus denied, with $10 costs, but with leave to renew upon further papers.

Prince vs. Conner, &c.—The present surety is amply.

Lorllard vs. Clyde.—Motion for a mandamus denied, with $10 costs, but with leave to renew upon further papers.

Fince vs. Conner, &c.—The present surety is amply sufficient, and the undertaking—that is, the three sureties—should be approved.

Matter of the pedition of Davis.—The Court has no jurisdiction in this matter; but, as it is suggested that the Comptroller desires the opinion of the Court, and as proceedings looking to that end have been taken, I see no objection to the expression of opinion. I have gone over the testimony, and although the amount seems to be large, yet it is amply justified by the variety and extent of the service rendered. The referee could not have reported otherwise on the proofs, and his report ought to be confirmed.

Matter of Hunter and another.—I see nothing in this matter to justify the allowance asked for, although the amount was large, yet the account seems to have been a mere transcript from the well kept books of the trustees. There were but four meetings before the referee, and the matter was not complicated or difficult. I think $100 to the referee, $250 to pointioners' counsel, $100 to the referee, $250 to pointioners' counsel, $100 to the referee, $250 to pointioners' counsel, $100 to Mr. Sicvession and $75 to Mr. Friend will be ample compensation for the services rendered.

Forter and another vs. Morris et al.—Report confirmed and order for distribution granted.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS. Before Recorder Hackett.

ESCAPING HIS JUST PUNISHMENT. John Nannery is the name of the shoemaker, of No. John Nannery is the name of the shoemaker, of No. 59 South Fifth avenue, who, on Christmas night last, brutally kicked and beat his poor little deformed wife, saturated her clothing with kerosene oil as she lay stunned and helpless on the floor, and then consummated he floorible death by Captain O'Donnell, of the Eighth precinct, who was attracted by her cries, and arrived in time to carry her off in a terribly burned condition. John was arraigned at the bar yesterday, and, as his wife utterly reluxed to prosecute him, the Court was obliged to accept his plea of assault and battery, which was the highest crime he could be convicted of without the teatimony of his devoted wife. His Honor gave him the juil penalty of the law—one year in the Penitentiary.

The female was confined till yesterday, when she was released on ber own recognizance by Recorder Hackett, on metion of Assistant District Attorney Lyons. This motion does not release the party from the indictment upon which she may be tried at a more expedient time.

A RABE OCCURRENCE. John Doyle, a young man of twenty-four, who lived at No. 64 Baxter street, was arraigned under an indict-ment charging him with having, in company with Charles Davis, broken into the cigar manufactory of William E. Parsona, Nos. 7 and 9 West Broadway, on the night of April 22, and stolen therefrom 3,500 cigars, worth $150. Duyle declared to Recorder Hackott that his companion was innocent. "It was I alone that committed the burglary," said

"Well," said His Honor, "you may be telling the truth, which is such a rare occurrence in this court that, in consideration of it, I will deduct one year from the sentence which I otherwise would have passed. State Prison three years and six months."

He pleaded guilty yesterday and was sentenced to three years' confinement in the State Prison.

for the conversion of the title deed of 200,000 acres of alleges that the deeds of the lands, which are valued at $1,000,000, were given to defendant to place on record, and that instead of so doing he held them. David was arrested and held in $4,000 ball. Defendant's counsel, in seeking his rolease, claim that the lands are worth
